CONVICT'S STORY IS SENSATIONAL

Chinaman Serving Seven Years for Opium Selling Gives Startling Evidence Before Royal Commission

RECOGNIZES OFFICER TO WHOM MONEY WAS PAID

Ottawa Orders Warden of Penitentiary to Exclude Press From Investigation—Accurate Reports Secured

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23.—J. J. Wing, a Chinaman serving a seven-year sentence in the penitentiary for selling opium, came from his cell into the warden's office of that institution yesterday and told Commissioner J. P. Smith, K.C., that he had paid one of the mounted police officers accused before the Royal Commission $2,000 for twenty pounds of opium. No pressure on the part of Commissioner Smith or of C. L. Harrison, counsel for Attorney-General Mansford, before the inquiry, would induce Wing to say who was the man to whom he paid the money.

"Yes, he is in this room now," he admitted to Mr. Harrison, after a long period of cross-examination.

The R.C.M.P. officers present were Sergeant Mundy, P. W. Eccles, W. L. Smith, "Doc," and "Black." Col. Wroughton was also there, but Wing absolved him from the accusation. Frank Fernandez, the stool pigeon of the accused officers, was another man present whom Wing expressly excepted by name from any complicity in the alleged transaction.

"I am in for seven years," said Wing. "I do not want to get anyone else in trouble. I am afraid to say: the men are here now."

This was one of the highlights in a session of sensational yesterday, which began with the pilgrimage of commissioners, counsel, accused officers and press representatives to the gloomy walls of the sterner penal institution, New Westminster.

For the first time yesterday the commission departed from its former record of inquiry in public. Representatives of the press, admitted to Okalla without question and allowed to hear the first witness called from among the inmates of the penitentiary, were later excluded on receipt of a telegram from Ottawa instructing Colonel H. W. Cooper, warden of the penitentiary to exclude press reporters from any proceedings within the building.

FIND ANTIQUES OF MATCHLESS BEAUTY

Additional Treasures of Tomb of Tutankhamen Brought to Light by Excavators

LUXOR, Egypt, Nov. 23.—Further antiquities of matchless beauty came to light in Tutankhamen's tomb today when Howard Carter found two alabaster jars of exquisite design and craftsmanship, together with an ebony stick inlaid with the most delicate gold chevrons. These objects were found on the inside of the outer shrine containing the pharaoh's body.

It is assumed that the stick, which in shape is not unlike the conventional walking stick, was placed in the tomb by Tutankhamen's loyal subjects so as to aid his majesty on his long journey to the unknown realm, where he was believed he would enjoy eternal life.

The greater part of the day was occupied by Harry Burton, of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City, in taking photographs of the huge outer shrine in the mortuary chapel. The interior was cleared from every conceivable angle. This procedure is prescribed by Egyptian law, as experience has shown that the position of an object in a tomb is often of relatively greater importance than the object itself.

Jealousy Results In Shooting Affray

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 23.—Two girls were wounded today, probably fatally, in a shooting affray at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. George Cook here, early today. Geraldine Durston, 18, of Watford, received two bullets in the abdomen from a gun in the hands of Clarence Topping, 23, her sweetheart, and Viola McNaughton, 19, her chum, was pierced through the chest with a bullet from the revolver of Police Constable Harper, who was on the scene at the time and whose shot was directed toward Topping. Both girls were rushed to the hospital, Miss Durston, though wounded seriously, is expected to recover, but no hope is entertained for the recovery of Miss McNaughton. Topping, in police court this morning, was remanded for a week, pending the outcome of the wounds. Unrequited love and jealousy is believed to be the motive for the crime.

Archdeacon Mackay In Critical Condition

PRINCE ALBERT, Nov. 23.—Word was received this morning that Bishop Lloyd that the venerable Archdeacon J. A. Mackay is lying in a critical condition at North Battleford and little hope is entertained for his recovery. The Archdeacon is one of the most prominent of the old-timers of the Northwest, having been associated with it since 1883.

He translated the Bible into the Cree language.

LUMBER DUTY BIGGEST ISSUE

Proposed Impost on Export of Unmanufactured Timber, as Advocated by the member for Cowichan, Mr. Kenneth Duncan, is still the chief bone of contention in the Legislature.

MAJOR BURDE FLAYS AMERICAN OPERATORS

Says That Threat Has Been Made to Starve the Mill Workers if Eight-Hour Law Passes

WHETHER or not the Province should petition Ottawa to have an export duty placed upon the shipments of unmanufactured timber, as advocated by the member for Cowichan, Mr. Kenneth Duncan, is still the chief bone of contention in the Legislature.

The issue, while not of absorbing interest, has held the centre of the stage in the House for the past few days and has given opportunity to the administration to avoid other important questions.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. J. W. deB. Farris made an eloquent appeal in support of the amendment moved by the Minister of Lands, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, referring the whole question to the Royal Commission now sitting in the East on the question of the export of pulpwood.

The debate, while it got nowhere, and will be continued on Monday by Mr. Thomas Menzies, Independent member for Comox, gave the member for Alberni, Major Burde, opportunity to take a fling at the lumber operators and the eight-hour day bill brought down in the past two sessions.

Were it not for this question, the House would be hard put to it to find business to go on with. There is a paucity of business on the order paper which has not been experienced at this stage of a session for many years.

Mr. Farris opined the members might possibly be influenced by the political aspect of the question, but it should not be forgotten that the most important aspect was that of public interest. Any move that might affect basic industry should not be taken, he said. Considering the three nations before the House, he urged that the one which would do the most good and the least harm should be adopted.

Referring to the amendment of Mr. Hanes, calling for the House to urge upon Ottawa the total prohibition of the export of unmanufactured lumber from British Columbia, Mr. Farris doubted if North Vancouver's member meant what he said. That amendment applied only to lumber from Crown-granted lands, and over which the Government has no control. Such exports covered but forty-eight out of some one hundred and fifty million feet, a fact which showed, Mr. Farris argued, that there was a lack of consideration and a lack of information on the part of North Vancouver's member, indicating, to his mind, the necessity of securing the facts before asking the Government to take any drastic step which might jeopardize the lumber industry.

Mr. Bowser—Do you not admit the right of this Legislature to stop the export of lumber from Crown-granted timber by a tax?

Mr. Farris—I recall my friend attempted to stop export, and had a very interesting time.

Mr. Farris argued the Hanes motion was ambiguous. The best example Continued on Page 19

WAS FORCED TO KEEP OVER $3,000 WORTH OF LIQUOR

To have liquor valued at over $3,000 in his possession and yet be unable to dispose of it was the situation in which Mr. Jack Day, of 59 Cook Street, found himself, according to a statement made by him yesterday after the liquor had been seized by the police.

"I was in England when the Government Liquor Act came into force," said Mr. Day.

"Under the act people who had stock of liquor in their residences, and which they had obtained before the passing of the act, had one month in which to report this fact to the Liquor Control Board. The month in which I had to report had expired on my return. Immediately on my return I notified the board that I had liquor. I was told that others were in the same position as myself.

"Under the circumstances I assumed that the Government Liquor Act did not apply to me; that I was justified in retaining possession of my stock in my residence. I offered to sell the liquor to the government, but I was told they couldn't buy it. I was placed in a quandary, couldn't dispose of the liquor and I was unable to have it labelled as the time for labelling had expired during my absence. I was naturally forced to keep it."

The liquor is now at the police station, and Mr. Day will have an opportunity of applying for its return under Section 68 of the Government Liquor Act.

S. J. FARMER AGAIN MAYOR OF WINNIPEG

Chief Magistrate Gets Approval of Last Year's Work by Hand-Some Majority

WINNIPEG, Nov. 23.—S. J. Farmer, Labor, was today re-elected Mayor of Winnipeg by a majority of 1,599 over Robert Jacob. The contest was fought on a variety of issues, including the record of Mr. Farmer as Mayor during the last year; the platform of the Labor party, which endorsed his candidature; the policy and personnel of the Winnipeg civic association, which brought Mr. Jacob into the field.

Mr. Farmer's majority came principally from the central and northern sections of Winnipeg. South Winnipeg went for Jacob, but in insufficient strength to alter the result. Last year Mr. Farmer had a majority of 3,850 over J. K. Sparling. The vote today was larger than a year ago, but it failed to come up to expectations.

The vote for aldermen will not be known tonight.

RADIO BROADCASTING HELPS CAMPAIGNING

Mr. Asquith Declares Liberals Are on Defensive on Two Fronts of Protection and Socialism

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Tonight's line-up in the constituencies is as follows:
Conservatives, 525; Liberals, 440; Labor, 412.

The Scottish line-up is:
Unionist, 46; Liberal, 49; Labor, 46; Independent, 2; Unionist Free Trader, 1; Communist, 4.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A novelty in the present election campaign, whereby the speeches of great party leaders are reaching vaster audiences than formerly, is the employment of radio broadcasting and the use of loud speaking apparatus enabling large crowds, which cannot gain admission to election meetings, to hear the speeches outside. The plan is being especially used by former Premier Lloyd George in his tour.

All the leaders spoke again tonight. Winston Churchill in Leicester met with the same mixed reception, with much heckling, while Lloyd George, journeying to Scotland to join Herbert H. Asquith, had the same impetuous reception as before. Both Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd George had gone on a duck-hunting trip, so that the delegates and assistant delegates at Paisley denounced tariffs and capital levy in almost identical words.

HUNT MR. McGEER WHILE HE IS HUNTING DUCKS

Where is Mr. McGeer?
The Public Accounts Committee was all set yesterday morning, prepared to ask Premier Oliver's railway freight case about how he managed to run up a bill of over $85,000 while handling the Provincial government's case.

But Mr. McGeer failed to put in an appearance, and the secretary of the committee, Mr. Ben Kean, said a member for Atlin confessed that he had received no word from him.

Someone intimated that Mr. McGeer had gone on a duck-hunting trip, so that the committee will have to wait until his return before proceeding with the investigation.

Bomb Explosions Do Much Damage In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—A bomb exploded early today on the doorstep of the Spanish consulate on Pine Street. Scores of persons in the neighborhood were hurried from their beds, several being cut and bruised. No one was killed or seriously injured, the police said. Two other explosions, apparently of bombs, occurred shortly after 2 a.m., about a mile from the scene of the first blast. One of the bombs exploded in front of a building on Fifteenth Street. The entire front of the consulate was shattered and windows panes in nearby houses were blown out. Every house in the block was shattered by the force of the explosion.

STRESEMANN MEETS DEFEAT IN REICHSTAG

German Chancellor's Vote of Confidence Refused and Cabinet Immediately Resigns

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—Dr. Gustave Stresemann tonight resigned as Chancellor when the Reichstag, by a vote of 230 to 165, denied his rump cabinet a vote of confidence. Seven members abstained from casting their ballots. After the hail of resignation of him and his cabinet, which President Ebert accepted.

The President immediately sent for Paul Loebe, president of the Reichstag, with whom he held a conference. Who will head the new government remains a mystery tonight. Herr Ebert has requested Stresemann to carry on current business until his successor is appointed.

Outcome Long in Doubt

The outcome of the second crisis during the Chancellor's regime was in doubt up to a half-hour before the voting took place, as there were strong influences at work in the ranks of the Socialists in the direction of weakening the party's opposition by permitting sufficient members of the party to absent themselves from the chamber, thereby cutting down the Chancellor's numerical opposition in the plenary session.

Minister Declines Nanaimo Mayor's Plea for Destitute

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—Under present circumstances the Dominion Government is not disposed to aid unemployed men who drift to cities. This is indicated in a telegram sent by Hon. James A. Robb, Minister of Immigration to F. W. Busby, Mayor of Nanaimo. B. C. Mayor Busby wired the Prime Minister complaining that there are a large number of unemployed men in destitute circumstances in Nanaimo and that they have appealed to the municipal council for aid. Some of the men claim, according to the mayor's telegram, to be Dominion Government men, and have responded to the immigration campaign conducted by Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, M.P.P., on behalf of the Dominion Government, in the Old Country. The mayor states that immediate action is necessary to relieve the situation.

Victoria motorists whose car lights fail through some mechanical fault for which they are not responsible, will not be summoned to appear in police court on the first offence, according to a decision made at last night's meeting of the Police Commission.

A plan proposed by Commissioner Stannard, whereby a warning card will be issued by the traffic squad of the department to law-breaking drivers, was adopted, and in future a motorist who is discovered driving on any city street without a rear light burning, or who breaks any of the minor rules of the motor vehicle regulations, will be presented with one of the police cards as a warning. The driver's name, motorcar number, nature of his offence, and the date will be marked on the card. If the same driver is reported a second time for any minor offence a summons will follow.

PLAN TO UNITE ISLAND MILLS

Lumber Interests Working on Project for Co-operative Marketing Through Central Agency Here—Business People Declare Enterprise Will Hasten Establishment of Assembly Plant at Ogden Point, Bringing Trade to Semi-Idle Docks

THAT the early establishment of a big lumber assembly plant at the Ogden Point piers, with railroad slips for car ferries, will be a natural aftermath of the success of the present campaign to incorporate the smaller Vancouver Island mills into a closely knit association for the co-operative marketing of their lumber, is the confident assertion of members of the industrial group of the Chamber of Commerce, who are at present working on the project.

It was stated at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday that large orders for Island lumber are on the horizon, and that, if it were possible to estimate the contributions that could be made by the various small mills, it would be possible to fill them. Individual mills are unable alone to supply a full ship's cargo of lumber. It is believed that if they were to unite in their efforts to market their product the volume of their business would be tremendously increased by the ability to fill large consignments in concert.

The plan under consideration is to establish a central marketing office after the style of the selling agencies of the fruitgrowers' co-operative associations. This would enable the owners to avoid the payment of brokerage on their lumber, at present no inconsiderable item of expense.

It is thought that the ability of Vancouver Island mill owners to attract large orders will have the effect of hastening the plans to establish an assembly plant at the Ogden Point piers. The increased business that would be rendered possible by the organization of the owners, it is pointed out, would justify the expense entailed in the installation of the plant.

A conference was held in the city on Tuesday by a number of the sawmill men, under the chairmanship of Mr. M. P. Blair, head of the industrial group of the Chamber of Commerce. A course of action was discussed at length, but no definite steps were taken because of the absence of a number of the interested owners, whom Mr. W. D. French, president of Chemainus, is now interviewing up-Island.

Every hope for the success of the scheme is entertained by those actively engaged in it.

Wanderer Reaches Algonka Camp a Skeleton—Lived on Leaves and One Partridge

MICHIPICOTEN, Ont., Nov. 23.—Immured in by mountainous hills, his way blocked by lakes and swamps, Meryll Faro, of Montreal, tried vainly for twenty-one days to find his way back to the camp where he had been employed. During the entire period Faro subsisted entirely on running vines and the few green leaves he was able to find and one partridge which he caught. Faro had been missing since October 26. On November 15 he was brought into camp by two prospectors upon whom Faro had stumbled in his wanderings. Faro, before his adventure, weighed about 150 pounds, but on his return resembled only the gaunt skeleton of a man, with his clothing torn to shreds.

What Do These Things Tell You?

"SLEEPLESSNESS." Doctor Kennedy tells us, "is one of the commonest signs of nervousness. Another is physical unrest. You are showing signs of nervousness when you cannot keep from twitching your eyebrows, shrugging your shoulders, swinging one foot when your legs are crossed; or when you cannot sit at a desk or table without continually tapping with the fingers."

"The nervous man very often finds that he cannot concentrate on one task, but continually goes from one thing to another. He is also very apt to lose interest in the work and recreations that formerly gave him pleasure. And he is easily fatigued. Nervous fatigue is most commonly indicated by a constant feeling of tightness around the head."

THE worry and strain of recent years has been too much for many business and professional men who have not been able to break away from the details and anxieties associated with their occupations.

In a moment you will recall many who have broken down suddenly just when they appeared to be in their prime.

Some have had their lives snuffed out while others have lingered as invalids, lacking the energy and nerve force necessary for the pursuit of their vocations.

The warning symptoms as outlined above by Dr. Kennedy in the American Magazine for October are well worth a careful study, because with this knowledge you can then detect the indications of failing nervous energy while yet there is time to prevent serious results.

A few days away from the scene of your worries, rest and moderate exercise in the open will help to get you started on the way to better health. Your recovery will be greatly hastened by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Your digestive system has failed to supply proper nourishment to the nervous system. And when thus exhausted the nerves fail to control the digestive fluids of the stomach. On this account outside help is necessary, such as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, before you can get back your strength and vigor.

You will not be using this restorative treatment long before you will find yourself sleeping and resting better. And this is what you need above all else. The old energy and vigor will be felt throughout your system and you will be encouraged to keep up this reconstructive treatment until you feel entirely yourself again.

DISCLOSURES MAY LEAD TO TROUBLE

PUBLISHING U.S. AMBASSADOR'S REPORT UNUSUAL

Attracts Much Attention, But Emphasizes Baldwin's Stand for Britain's Rights

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The cable digest of United States Ambassador Herrick's report to Secretary Hughes on Monday's meeting of the Ambassador's Council in Paris, as printed by The New York World, has attracted much attention here. It is welcomed in some quarters as a convincing refutation of statements made by opponents of Mr. Baldwin's government that the latter had failed to uphold firmly the views, rights and interests of Great Britain.

The Daily Express calls the New York newspaper's story a remarkable disclosure and asks by whom it was authorized, adding, "It is a new diplomatic departure to allow publication of such a report which is likely to arouse deep resentment in France."

Although the ambassador's agreement had been reached with general satisfaction in London, the question of its permanence is raised in some quarters.

The Telegraph is loath to believe that the conciliatory attitude of France was due only to the fact that the British election was impending. The newspaper prefers to see in the French position "a new and enduring spirit of harmony which only a clumsy or dishonest attitude on the part of Germany could mar."

That the Government is confident the crisis is not yet at an end seems to be indicated in a speech yesterday by the Duke of Devonshire who said the ministry hoped to report an understanding and to co-operate with all the Allies, but that if it failed it would be obliged to take such steps as to reach a solution without them, deeply as it would regret the necessity of such procedure.

JAPAN'S GOVERNMENT AIDS UNDERWRITERS

Will Advance Ten Per Cent of Insurance Loss Through the Recent Earthquake

TOKIO, Nov. 23.—The Japanese Government has decided to advance to the insurance companies sufficient funds to cover 10 per cent of their earthquake and fire losses, charging them 2 per cent interest. The amount that would be advanced if the companies accept the offer is 300,000,000 yen or the equivalent of $100,000,000 in American money. As security the insurance companies are to organize a fund to which each company would subscribe a certain amount which would go to form a sinking fund for the repayment of the loan. The companies are considering the proposal.

The Cabinet has approved Home Minister Coto's reconstruction scheme, under which the expenditure of money by the Government in reconstruction would be spread over a period of six years beginning with 1924.

Minister of Finance Inoue says the money will be raised by domestic funds.

CANADA'S BALDWIN

SIR ARTHUR CURRIE IS BUSINESSMEN'S CHOICE

But He Was Not Available, and Now Montreal Thinks Ontario Premier Is the Man

Financial Post

MONTREAL, Nov. 22.—The recent visit of Premier Howard Ferguson of Ontario, to Montreal, and The Montreal Star's new campaign to find "a Canadian Baldwin" to lead the country's affairs, may not at first glance appear to bear any direct relation to each other. In reality it is understood that both are part of the same deep-laid plan. The Montreal end of the Conservative party, which includes powerful business interests that are not openly in politics, has picked Ferguson as Canada's next premier, to succeed Meighen, and this means but one thing, as Canada's next premier. The Star's new campaign which is headed, "Wanted, a Canadian Baldwin," and which soon as the caucus to light up the political stage upon which The Star's next "star" will make his debut.

Sir Arthur Currie First Chosen

Ferguson was the second choice of the business "bloc." The leader first selected, and with a good deal of unanimity, was Sir Arthur Currie. There may be more than fiction in the story that Atholstan gathered ten leading business men into his office and told them about a dozen inquiring for leadership. And then, so it is said, he handed each one a slip of paper on which to write the name of the man he would choose to do the Moses act. And eight slips mentioned Currie.

Sir Arthur has been creating a very favorable impression as head of McGill, his inherent qualities of leadership coming to the fore. His speeches have been excellent, brief and convincing, and clothed in exquisite English. His introduction of Lloyd George at Montreal's mass reception to the English statesman was highly complimented. His tireless energy over the past strenuous week-end, when he addressed about a dozen gatherings, giving to each a presentable and different message of lofty idealism, demonstrated qualities not without a political value.

But He's Not Available

But Currie is declared not to be available. Moreover, he would not be widely acceptable among partisans. If, as reported, he was offered the nomination to head the Tories, he may be assumed to have turned it down, at least for the present.

That left the field open to G. Howard Ferguson. Montreal had a chance to look him over about two weeks ago when he addressed the Canadian Club and the Liberal-Conservative organization here. His speeches marked him as safe, sound and enlightened. He got a better reception here than he would have gotten in most parts of Ontario, his home province. He is no Baldwin, for Baldwin is a business man first and a politician second, and Ferguson is, above all, the politician, and a most clever one. But leaders of national scope are few and far between in the present era in Canada, as The Star has discovered, and Ferguson has the essential quality of "elasticity."

As for Ontario, there would be no vacant chair there. Nickle has been primed for premiership and his succession would be easy to arrange.

Anti Rum-Running Parley Opens Tuesday

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—The conference between Canada and the United States in regard to the prevention of rum running is now set to open here next Tuesday, November 27. The conference is expected to last for two days.

No official programme for the discussions has been announced, but it has been reported that it may include the administration of the anti-narcotics as well as of the liquor laws. It is expected that Hon. Jacques Bureau, Minister of Customs, and Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of Interior, will be among the Canadian representatives at the conference, and if anything they wish without having to suffer for it after.

Mr. Fred Nielson, Dodge Jaw, Sask., writes: "All last summer I was troubled with stomach trouble and indigestion, and also gas on the stomach. I could not eat anything except some light food, and even then I would be bothered with pains after each meal. I could not work a whole day without being done out. I had tried everything: doctors, medicines and pills, until I read about Burdock Blood Bitters. I have taken four bottles, and it has nearly, if not completely, restored me to health again." ## Heart Failure Apparently Gives Witness the Lie BREGENZ, Austria, Nov. 23.—"Almighty God punish me with instant death if I am guilty," was the final declaration of a man on trial here for the murder of his wife. Immediately after uttering these words he swooned in the courtroom and died before doctors could come to his aid.

His statement was made during a heated cross-examination under which the accused showed great excitement. Doctors certified that heart failure caused his death.

SAYS LORD'S DAY ACT DOES NOT APPLY HERE

Prosecution of Concert Promoter in Vancouver Halted by Defence Quoting Enactment

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23.—That the Lord's Day Act does not apply in British Columbia, but that a statute enacted in the reign of King Charles I of England, governing Sunday observance, was the law in this Province, was the contention of Wendall Farris, K.C., in police court here today in connection with the charge against Miss Laverock in violating the Lord's Day Act in promoting a Sunday concert.

Mr. Farris pointed out that in the Lord's Day Act there is a clause which declares it shall not be acted if it affects, amends or extends existing legislation, and he argued that the Province already had a Sunday observance law, which was a statute of King Charles I, which it was contended was incorporated into the statutes of British Columbia, and which provides no penalty for the promoter of a Sunday entertainment, but imposed a fine of three shillings on each person that attended but and bear bearing competitions, etc.

Magistrate, who adjourned the hearing for a week to consider the point raised.

EXHIBITION ATTRACTS ATTENTION TO CANADA

Sir Lomer Gouin Reports Much Use of Advertising Secured by Peripatetic Show

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—"Canada has received a great deal of excellent publicity through a medium of the traveling exhibition, and I was surprised and delighted to note the number of visitors to the display after it had been located in Paris and opened to the public." Sir Lomer Gouin, Minister of Justice, declared here in an interview.

Regarding the British elections, he thought Canada might well take a lesson from Great Britain in the shortness of the campaign preceding a general election.

The Minister said: "I am happy to say that I am much improved in health, and since my arrival home I have improved still further."

SASKATCHEWAN OBJECTS

REGINA, Nov. 23.—The big poster judging contest promoted by Rev. L. L. in aid of the veterans of the Great War will not be allowed in Saskatchewan, according to the provincial Attorney-General's Department. Authorities here take the same view as those of Ontario, who have held that the scheme is a lottery. Local veterans have not handled any of the posters and no prosecutions are likely in this city.

INDIGESTION GAS ON STOMACH PAINS AFTER MEALS

Many people suffer terribly from gas and pains in the stomach after every meal, and are kept in constant misery.

For the past 44 years Burdock Blood Bitters has been bringing hope and joy to thousands suffering from various forms of stomach trouble, helping them to eat three square meals a day; helping them to eat anything they wish, without having to suffer for it after.

Mr. Fred Nielson, Dodge Jaw, Sask., writes: "All last summer I was troubled with stomach trouble and indigestion, and also gas on the stomach. I could not eat anything except some light food, and even then I would be bothered with pains after each meal. I could not work a whole day without being done out. ## AN EMPIRE CRUISE

During the world cruise of British warships which commences next week two-thirds of the ports to be visited will be within the Empire. No such cruise has ever been undertaken by a British Fleet before, and, indeed, its extent makes it unusual in the history of the Navy. The ships will be absent from their home ports for ten months. There have been longer cruises but never before one in which the itinerary is so large. The Flying Squadron, which, among other places, visited Esquimaux in 1870, left England on June 19, 1869, and did not return until November 15, 1870, but it only touched at fifteen places. The present fleet, headed by the battle-cruisers Hood and Repulse, will visit all the places visited by the flying squadron except Funchal and Yokohama, and will touch at thirty other ports as well. The fleet will be on its way for upwards of six months before it touches at a foreign port and the first occasion will be at Honolulu on June 6 of next year.

Through this world cruise the British flag will be shown in ports where it is now seldom seen on warships. It will be seen on vessels of the highest fighting efficiency. The warships will illustrate that Britain still builds the finest vessels afloat. It is believed that the Empire cruise will serve to stimulate trade. It will give opportunity for long distance steamship trials as well as providing valuable experience for the personnel. It will be an object lesson to the Dominions on the value of sea power and on the type of floating gun platforms which are requisite to keep open the sea communications of the Empire. The Hood, one of the vessels, flying the flag of Rear-Admiral Sir Frederick Field, is the heaviest man-of-war in the world, with a displacement of 42,000 tons. The Repulse is a lighter battle-cruiser, of 26,500 tons. The light cruiser squadron is composed of five sister ships of the "D" class, the Delhi, Daad, Dauntless, Dragon and Dunedin, each of 4,650 tons and armed with six 6-inch guns. With two exceptions they belong to the largest class of light cruiser for general service in the Royal Navy. The Hood and Repulse have a speed of 31 knots and the light cruisers a speed of 19 knots. The fleet is scheduled to arrive at Esquimaux on June 21 of next year and the warships will remain in these waters until July 4.

TARIFF ON FUEL OIL

The Government's proposal to put a tariff on fuel oil is seemingly to be carried out under the designation of a sales tax after the commodity reaches the Province and when it is being dispensed to the consumers. Under whatever designation, it can only be regarded as a proposal likely to act in restraint of trade, and we are very much inclined to think that the Federal Government could take issue with British Columbia in any attempt to impose such a tariff. A delegation of the industrial interests has pointed out to the Premier and his colleagues that the tariff would seriously cripple industry in British Columbia. The Premier, after listening to this delegation, expressed surprise that there was so much fuel oil used in the Province, and yet, before considering such a tariff, it might have been thought that the Government would have obtained full information about its possible incidence.

Of course, it is the public who will have to pay this tariff if it is imposed. It is only natural to suppose that there will be higher passenger and freight rates on the vessels using fuel oil. The newspapers will have to pay a higher cost for their newsprint. The price of lumber will increase because fuel oil is used extensively in logging operations. It is serious enough to think that the C.P.R. may have to reconsider its decision to build two new passenger ferries for the British Columbia trade at a cost of $3,000,000, without going into all the other ramifications likely to ensue from a tariff on fuel oil such as is proposed by Premier Oliver and his colleagues. The Government is now receiving a surplussage of revenue for all the legitimate and necessary purposes of administration. It can do away with scores of superfluous expenses, reduce its cohorts of employees, revise policies which have incurred wasteful outlays, and, in every branch of the public service, that it controls, put into force business methods of economy. There is not a shadow of any need for new taxation in any direction. On the contrary, the main need of the Province at this juncture is for taxation reduction so that hope for the future may be restored to our people. The Government, when it directs the spearhead of taxation against such industries as are able to maintain themselves in British Columbia, is engaging on a dangerous venture. It is doing so without full knowledge of the consequences as is evident from admissions made to the industrial delegates who waited on the Government to protest against the proposed tariff on fuel oil.

CAPITAL LEVY FALLACY

The main plank in the Labor Party's platform in the British election is the capital levy. The proposal is dwarfed in the public mind beside the issue of tariff reform, but it is none the less a grave matter when it appears as a foremost policy of the official opposition among the political parties of Britain. Those who talk of the capital levy rarely take time or trouble to estimate it in the cold light of actual economic conditions, physical and psychological. The capital of any country does not consist of piles of currency notes lying idle in safes. If it did a capital levy could be collected without any economic disturbance. Capital, however, is land, buildings, railways, houses, plant, machinery and a host of other things having a physical existence. The great bulk of it is used productively. In effect, capital is that part of past production which is saved and converted into a form which permits future production. It follows that if the owners were forcibly deprived of any portion of this capital their capacity to produce would be curtailed.

An underlying principle of all political economy laid down by Adam Smith is that income should be taxed, and not the capital which produces it. Another authority says: "Capital being a physical and not a monetary asset, it is obviously impossible for a levy on capital to be paid by capital itself. All so-called capital taxes of the present time are in reality taxes on income. The Socialist proposal of a capital levy is made more with the object of having a rallying cry than because of any enthusiasm about it. Mr. J. R. Clynes has gone so far as to say that the Party, in which he is second in command, is not wedded to the idea of a capital levy. He realizes, though he may advocate the levy for electioneering purposes, that the administrative difficulties of carrying out a levy on capital would be so great that before the operation could be completed the objective would have been partially lost. In explaining the administrative process The London Times says:

The process of valuation and assessment of the innumerable things that make up capital would be a long and tedious one. While the process was being carried out, the business community would be thrown into a state of great uncertainty as to what were any firm's liabilities; bankers would be unable to finance a business properly because of that uncertainty, which, in turn, would result in diminished trade and lessened employment; and when the levy came to be collected it would probably be found that some of the values on which it had been assessed had, in fact, disappeared. In other words, it would be found that the proposed levy violated the root principle of taxation. Moreover, a definite loss would be incurred in making a redistribution of wealth on a large scale. Even the payment of death duties frequently involves a serious disturbance of markets.

NOT A PEOPLE'S LAW

The decision of Britain, with the concurrence of the Overseas Premiers, to permit American Prohibition officials to search British ships within a twelve-mile limit, coupled with conferences that have been held between United States and Canadian authorities on the subject of co-operating in seeing that American Prohibition regulations are enforced, raises an interesting issue. The American nation has always considered itself capable of looking after its own affairs. It may be true that the United States has made Prohibition a part of the fundamental law of the country but it is not the American people who have done this. They were not consulted and never had an opportunity of recording their individual votes on this momentous issue. It is not the American people who have asked for the twelve-mile limit; nor is it they who seek Canadian co-operation in enforcing the Prohibition law. Thus the vindication of the principle of enactment of Prohibition does not lie in its ready acceptance by the people at large.

It is quite obvious from the thousands of violations of the Volstead Act in the United States that the American public as a whole have not shown any peculiarly keen desire to enforce Prohibition. It was lack of a similar desire which led to the defeat of Prohibition in three of the Canadian Provinces. In America three of the States of the Union have refused to enforce the enactment within their boundaries. Under these circumstances it is hard to understand why either Britain or Canada should interfere in a matter which has never received the sanction of the American people. If, as is so often claimed, the Americans are heart and soul for Prohibition, then it is only necessary for them to cease buying liquor and there will be no need whatever for the twelve-mile limit. Any search for or Canadian co-operation in preventing liquor exports from crossing the boundary line. The Americans are wealthy themselves, if it is enforceable, without calling to their assistance the governmental agencies of other countries to help them out in making the Volstead Act more rigid and binding.

Danish girls claim to have reached physical perfection through a new system of calisthenics.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

We have the highest respect for our Uncle Samuel across the way. The gentleman is possessed of a most estimable character. His social qualities are superlative in degree. He is a good neighbor and we desire to live on the best of terms with him. He is exceedingly diligent in business and very vigilant in looking after his own interests. All this may be said, and possibly much more, in perfectly good faith.

But surely Canadians are not expected to salamat at the mere mention of the name of this very astute gentleman, to bow down and worship him, to dance every time he cracks his tariff whip, to tremble at the very thought of what he may do to us if we undertake to defend our material interests.

The Victoria Times is violently indignant at the bare idea of any attempt being made to protect the timber of Vancouver Island from the inroads of the raiders from the other side of the line. It wants to know what will happen if we provoke the United States into putting an embargo upon exports of manufactured lumber from this country. It, in company with Mr. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King and Hon. T. Duff Pattullo, trembles with fear at the imaginative "frown" that is gathering upon the brow of our very shrewd and exceedingly aggressive neighbor. Their hearts need not be troubled, neither need they be afraid. Uncle Sam is not going to cut off his nose to spite his face.

Lumber is becoming an exceedingly scarce article in the United States of America. The timber in our forests will not be permitted to go to decay for lack of a remunerative market. The Provincial Government may be inclined to all the money it can collect from immediate exploitation of our timber resources, but we do not know that the extravagance of that administration, coupled with the desires of timber speculators, will be considered by the people sufficient justification for permitting Vancouver Island to be speedily stripped bare of its principal natural source of wealth.

The Times violently denounces the present agitation for protection of our timber and for the adoption of measures that will insure to its owners all the benefits of its manufacture at home, and Mr. Pattullo proposes to shelve the question for an indefinite period. Suppose we put a supposititious case before them and inquire what they would do about it?

The Victoria Lumber Company, whose mill unfortunately has been destroyed by fire, own extensive tracts of timber upon Vancouver Island. That company is said to be in doubt about the advisability of erecting a new mill owing to the conditions under which it may be forced to manufacture its lumber. Suppose further that the company, after careful consideration of the situation, should decide that it would derive greater financial benefits from its property by selling its logs to American mills than by incurring the great expense of erecting a new mill of its own, would such a development at that arrest the attention of the Minister of Lands and convince him and his vociferous defender of the necessity of something being done without loss of time to protect our timber resources? Would the extinction of a prosperous community upon Vancouver Island convince those gentlemen of the error of their ways?

We believe that the management of the Victoria Lumber Company will construct its new mill; but there is nothing to prevent it from exporting its logs if it believes that it could secure better financial returns in that way.

The profession of journalism does not seem to be an extra hazardous calling notwithstanding the action of the British Columbia Workmen's Compensation Board. Hon. W. S. Fielding, who was a newspaper man before he first entered public life, is labored at his chosen calling in intervals between his occupation of the position of Finance Minister in the Governments of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. William Lyon Mackenzie King, has just celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday. Age does not appear to have diminished, not to say withered, nor hard work affected the mental powers of Mr. Fielding. He is generally admitted to be the brains of the King Administration and a wise counsellor to his several political colleagues. He is being showered with honors and deluged with congratulations on the attainment of many years of usefulness in the service of the country.

Mr. Bernard McEvoy is another journalist who has attained eminence and length of days in his chosen profession. He has served with distinction on the editorial staffs of several Canadian newspapers, and is at present a member of the editorial staff of The Vancouver Province, one of the most successful newspapers in Canada. Mr. McEvoy's many friends in the newspaper business will regret to learn of the bereavement he has recently suffered in the death of his wife. May we be permitted to join in expressions of sympathy for this veteran journalist and his family in their affliction?

The Winter which has not yet arrived on this part of the American Continent, is going to be a very mild one, according to a competent authority, the muskrat. Creatures of that order are said to possess instinctive knowledge regarding the weather. Nature, which provides them with a specially warm and cosy coat for the cold season, also whispers into their ear whether it will be necessary to provide houses with specially thick walls to keep the frost out. A trapper says that the muskrat houses are built with very thin walls this year, ergo the Winter is going to be comparatively warm. Still, Nature sometimes "puts one over" on muskrat and beaver. Perhaps to be on the safe side it might be just as well for mankind to lay in a reasonably good supply of fuel.

Unfading all the chains that tie
The hidden soul of harmony.

LETTY'S GLOBE

When Letty has passed her third glad year,
And her young artless words began to flow,
One day we gave the child a colored sphere
Of the earth, that she might know
By tint and outline, all the seas and land,
Between her baby fingers, her soft hand
Was welcomed, and she gazed with awe
And looked and gazed in her world-wide
Globe!
But on our own tale, she raised a joyous cry—
"Oh, yes! I see it. Letty's home is there!"
And while she hid all England with a line,
Bright over Europe fell her golden hair.
—Charles Tennyson Turner.

By the Way—

(Copyright, 1923, North American Newspaper Alliance)

WATLING STREET is an ancient Roman military road in Britain, extending across the island in a northwesterly direction. Commencing at Richborough on the Kent coast, it ran through Dover, Canterbury and Rochester in Britain, entered to London, and thence across the island to Chester.

Portions of the road still exist as an important highway, and the part that extends through London retains its name to the present day. Watling Street, in the days of the Britons, was a mere track through the forest, but was converted into a military highway by the Romans, general, Vitellianus, whose name was corrupted into Watlain, and this later into Watling. The term "Watling Street" was frequently used in England, during the Middle Ages, to denote the Milky Way.

YOUNG MEN SEEK POLITICAL HONORS

Youngsters of All Parties Try for Seats in the British House of Commons

LONDON, Nov. 23.—One of the most interesting features of the present election is the large number of very young men who are candidates for seats in the House of Commons. The Liberals have the youngest, Reginald Hall, 21 years old, who is opposing the Hon. Esmond Harnsworth, 25, in the Isle of Thanet division of Kent. Lord Balmoral, 25, heir of Earl of Crawford, is the Conservative candidate in Wigan. In the Conservative list, among those under 30 years old are: Sir V. Warrender, 24, the Hon. R. C. Campbell, 25, C. Canale, 25, Lord Erskine, 25; Lord Aspley, 25; Lord Hartington, 25; Captain H. McMillan, 25; and Lord Stanbury, 25. The Conservatives also have a "youngster" in the twenty-five-year-old son of Sir Alfred Mond, the present member for Swansea West, and Major Lloyd George, who is 28.

Fire In Tia Juana Does Much Damage

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 23.—At 6 o'clock tonight the fire that threatened to wipe out the old town section of Tia Juana was reported under control with one whole block destroyed. No estimate of the loss has been given. The fire started at about 4 o'clock in the Newport Bar and burned toward the Government building. Four saloons, a drug store and a small curio store were burned. The St. Francis Hotel escaped and the race track property was not damaged. Fire apparatus from the track helped save the town.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of November 24, 1873)

Members, indemnity—What They Got.—The members of the Ottawa Parliament will not receive full salaries for the year. They will be paid at the rate of $10 a day for the fourteen days the session lasted. Had it not been for their day they would have been paid $1,000 each. To the full mileage, of course, they are entitled.

Loss of the "Robert Law"—The telegraph announces the loss of the Robert Law, a schooner of the Canadian coast guard, which was wrecked on the coast of Newfoundland last night. The schooner was carrying a cargo of coal and was bound for St. John's. The loss of the schooner is a serious blow to the coal trade of the province.

Promoted—Capt. R. B. Good has been promoted to the position of Collector of Inland Revenue for the Division of British Columbia.

HOSPITAL DRIVE NEEDS MORE ACTIVE WORKERS

Committee Will Urge Co-operation of Rotary, Kiwanis and Gyro Clubs Next Week

An appeal for co-operation on the part of the city's service organizations will be made by hospital drive speakers next week, when they appear before the regular luncheon meetings of the Gyro, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs.

The committee is looking for more voluntary contributors to the hospital fund. So far over $50,000 has been collected, but it has come from only 433 individuals, 100 of whom have given voluntarily.

Voluntary subscriptions and more active workers from the service organizations are the main need of the committee now.

Subscriptions passed the $50,000 mark yesterday. Here are the day's donations:

CANADIAN CATTLE FEATURED

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Canadian cattle were a feature of the Christmas fat cattle show which opened at Norwich yesterday. ## Beer Clubs

Mr.—Our Attorney-General appears to be unable to cope with them. Has it occurred to his legal mind to give orders to the liquor stores to issue no orders for beer to be delivered to club addresses? Instead of that he is allowing it to be delivered by dozens of barrels a day. If he gave orders that beer was only to be delivered to home addresses, or in small quantities to room addresses, the beer clubs would be put out of business in a week.

Give it a trial Mr. Attorney-General. JOHN MACKAY

FIGHT FOR CUT IN EXPRESS RATES

B. C. Industries Ready for Concerted Action Before Railway Board—Claim That This Province Has Been Overcharged in Past Years—Fruit Growers and Fish Interests Ready to Advance Their Case—Johnson Street Bridge Question Raised

QUESTIONS relating to the Johnson Street Bridge will engage most of the time of the Board of Railway Commissioners when it meets here on Thursday, November 29, but at both the Victoria and Vancouver sessions British Columbia interests will fight for a reduction in express rates. Mr. S. B. Brown, transportation expert of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, who returned to the East yesterday after spending several days on the coast, has advanced the case for manufacturers to British Columbia by helping in the preparation of individual evidence.

Overcharging Alleged

One of the things Mr. Brown has brought forward is the fact that the express rates are fixed on a basis of 1 1/4 times the standard first-class railway rates. When railway rates were reduced in British Columbia in August of last year no corresponding reduction was made in express rates, states Mr. Brown. It will be argued that the express companies have actually been overcharging in British Columbia.

Besides manufacturers, growers of fruit and fishery men will throw their weight against the application for higher rates. Each branch of industry will contend that transportation costs are already too high and that any increase now would be dangerous to the industry.

Fruit Industry Affected

Prof. A. L. Barr, representing the B. C. Fruit Growers' Association, an organization which deals with problems of producers of fruit and vegetables in the Province, stated last night that the association is compiling evidence for presentation to the commission pointing out that the existing express rates are already almost prohibitively high and cut in seriously on returns on perishable fruits and vegetables.

Fishery men of the Dominion are inclined to the opinion that lack of political affiliation in their case is subjecting them to a position of disadvantage. Mr. J. A. Paulhaus, president of the Canadian Fishermen's Association, recently stated that the interests of the fishing industry should not be sacrificed because it has not the political prestige of other industries.

"In the last four years the industry has been in a life and death struggle for existence and the heavy migration from the fishing villages to the Maritime Provinces bears witness to the fact that the industry has not come through the struggle unscathed," he said.

"I am afraid the public is not sufficiently interested in this matter of transportation. But the public pays the bill ultimately and it is a matter of shortsightedness to stifle it by. This transportation problem has got to be solved, but it will not be solved so long as the people do not demand its solution."

nothing which might serve to indicate reason for depondency, nor did the dead man leave any note or document to explain his action.

VOTE ON CENTRE BY-LAW DELAYED

Will Not Be Ready for Elections, Mayor Announces, Following Conference With C.P.R. Representatives

AGREEMENT WILL BE MOST DETAILED ONE

Conditions Make Vote on Proposal Unlikely Before the Last Week in December, Mayor Says

It will not be possible to have the amusement centre project voted on at the municipal elections on December 13, Mayor Hayward announced late yesterday, after conference with City Solicitor Pringle and C.P.R. representatives. He said the vote would probably be taken during the last week of December.

Legislation concerning the amusement centre project is being asked for from the Provincial Legislature at its present sitting, and the City Solicitor does not expect to see the city's private bill, containing these provisions, passed until probably a week of December has gone by. The City Council cannot give the by-law the necessary three readings until after the legislation is secured, and after the readings are given there must be ten clear days of advertising before the polling date.

City Solicitor Pringle and the C.P.R. representatives conferred yesterday concerning matters in connection with the amusement centre proposal. The agreement is apparently to be a most detailed and comprehensive document, and there are many points to be agreed upon.

It is proposed to ask the Legislature for authority to present one by-law to the people, instead of four required under the law at present, to cover the various questions. This, it is felt, would clarify matters considerably, and would obviate any chance of the ratepayers agreeing to some terms and not to others. They would be compelled to accept or reject the whole scheme en bloc.

The amusement centre agreement will probably go before the City Council next Friday, when it also as the Public Works Committee will be held. A meeting of the City Council to consider the matter was called for yesterday afternoon, but as a draft agreement was not ready, the meeting was cancelled.

SAANICH RATEPAYERS DESIRE ACT AMENDED

Would Make It Compulsory for Council to Fill Vacancies in Governing Body at Once

Saanich ratepayers would compel those in control of the affairs of the municipality to immediately fill any vacancy which might occur in the governing body, according to a decision made at last night's meeting of the Central Ratepayers' Association at the Tolmie School. Efforts will be made to secure an amendment in the Municipal Act, so that the clause stating that in the event of a vacancy occurring the Council "may" appoint a new member, to the Council "shall" appoint a new member. The association wants the clause so altered that the municipal council shall have no option but to declare a vacancy as soon as one occurs.

A delegation composed of the following members of the association was authorized to represent the case of the ratepayers before the municipal committee of the Legislature, Messrs. Simpson, Macdonald, Kellicott, Fulbrook and F. Horden, Jr.

CALL IN REALTORS TO MARKET U.B.C. ENDOWMENT LAND

A drive, in which the entire real estate community of Vancouver will be enlisted, is being planned by the Provincial Government to market the University of British Columbia endowment lands in Point Grey, it was announced in the Legislature by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, yesterday in response to questions put by Mr. W. J. Howser, K.C., Opposition leader, and Mr. Thomas Pearson, Conservative member for Richmond.

"The proposal may be all right," said Mr. Howser, "if proper publicity is employed you may secure results, but if anybody can drift into the department and get lots at the discretion of officials it might lead to scandals or to the suggestion of unfairness," said the Opposition leader.

Hon. Mr. Pattullo—Too much legislation is based upon the assumption that everyone is dishonest. This is a matter of trusting the Government and relying upon public opinion as a sufficiency check.

The minister stated that negotiations are now under way with the Point Grey council to arrive at a fair basis of values, but ultimately the cost must be borne by the people who buy the sites. He stated that he hoped the sale would be well under way in 1924.

In September, ninety-two accidents, the highest number for any month in the year, were reported.

They decided that they had no intention of asking the city to be responsible for the unpaid bills of all patients, but only of indigents. ## COULDN'T SLEEP HEART WAS BAD NERVES A WRECK

Mr. H. A. Reid, Upper Musquodoe, N.B., writes: "I am very thankful for the benefit I have received by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills."

"When I came home from overseas, in 1920, my heart was very badly affected by concussion, and my nerves were a dreadful wreck. I was very short-winded, and could not possibly sleep at night. In fact, I was in such a condition I felt as if I did not wish anyone to speak to me. I thought I would try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and before I had taken two boxes I could enjoy a good night's rest as well as anyone."

"There are lots of returned men who are suffering the same as I did, and I feel sure that if they would only try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills they will receive the same relief that I have."

Stokes, assistant general publicity agent at Montreal, replied: "While the people of this company are bound up with these of every community along its line, there are few with which we have no pleasant relations as with Victoria. Jitneys' Parking Space—Objection was made to the Victoria Police Commission last night by two of the jitney drivers who have made their city station on Douglas Street, opposite the Campbell Building, the Sancho Lake Hill buses falling to park obliquely to the curb, thus taking up space and preventing prospective passengers from seeing the jitneys which are forced to take up a position behind the buses. The commission decided that nothing could be done except to give the jitney drivers the choice of parking on the north-west corner of Douglas and Fort streets, or remaining at the Campbell corner as they are.

City Hall Activities in Brief

Notice of the cancellation of the charter of the Hellenic-Canadian Club, Yates Street, was received from the Provincial Government by Mayor Hayward yesterday. The revocation was by order-in-council approved by the Lieutenant-Governor on Wednesday. The Mayor is passing the notice on to the City Council.

Mayor Hayward has accepted on behalf of the city an offer from a wealthy Old Countryman of about thirty paintings. The offer came through the Agent-General of British Columbia in London, who cabled it to Hon. John Hart for communication to Mayor Hayward. The cable stated that "a wealthy English gentleman, who has provided several picture galleries for cities in other provinces, is ready to give a valuable collection to Victoria if he can be sure that they will be properly housed." The pictures would fill four large rooms, said the Agent-General, who claimed they were "valuable and important." He had seen them at the Grosvenor and other galleries.

Mayor Hayward has replied that he accepts the generous offer on behalf of the city, and that the pictures will be placed in the new amusement centre if it is built. They will be given a temporary home in the meantime.

To remove garbage by means of the giant garbage truck operated by the city costs only $1.40 per cubic yard, as compared with $1.53 when the horse-drawn vehicles are used. City Engineer Preston said yesterday. The Ford truck handles garbage at a cost of $1.18 per cubic yard.

During October 1923 students, the largest number ever accommodated in that month in any year, attended the Victoria High School. The previous peak for October was in 1921, when 1,000 registered.

PASS BOUQUETS AT POLICE MEETING

One Commissioner Predicts January Election Will Make No Difference in Personnel of Board

Although Commissioner Ernest Hall at last night's meeting of the Victoria Police Commission made a solemn prediction that there would be no change in the personnel of the commission following the January municipal election, each of the commissioners, on the basis that "you never can tell," presented his colleagues with verbal bouquets and messages of appreciation.

Commissioner Standish led off with stating that his duties as a member of the commission during the past year had been a pleasure to him, due to the harmony which had always prevailed. He thanked his two fellow-commissioners for their always apparent efforts to promote that feeling. Commissioner Hall, who has another year to serve on the board, paid the chairman, Mayor Hayward, and Commissioner Standish a high tribute for their work during the year. The latter he described as an indefatigable worker and a firm believer in co-operation and harmony as a means of getting work done efficiently.

Mayor Hayward stated that the meetings of the commission had been a great pleasure to him. The commissioners could not have worked in a better spirit of harmony. Agreement had been reached on all subjects even when on some they could not see eye to eye, they agreed to disagree pleasantly.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Nov. 23.—The remains of Captain W. L. Gilchrist were taken yesterday afternoon to Vancouver for burial there today at 3 o'clock, in Ocean View Cemetery.

That the deceased held a high place in the respect and esteem of his fellow townsmen was silently but eloquently set forth by the large profusion of floral offerings, the caquet being draped with the Union Jack, which the deceased had served honorably and well during the early days of his marine career.

The funeral of Captain J. B. Knarston, whose death occurred on Tuesday morning, took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, Selby Street, to the Nanaimo Cemetery for interment. The funeral was largely attended and the floral offerings numerous. Services were conducted by the Rev. D. Lister, and the following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Messrs. J. Wardell, Captain A. F. Yates, J. Stewart, H. Johnston, J. Vanden and T. Morgan.

The Nanaimo Elks' "haysced dance" held last evening in aid of the kiddies' Christmas Cheer Fund, was the biggest social success of the season. Upwards of 500 persons were in attendance, and from the very beginning until the home walls were danced there were no dull moments. The decorations were most appropriate, and many a citizen made a good "Rube," and created no end of amusement to the large gathering. The prize in connection with the husking bee was won by Mrs. R. Hindmarsh.

A meeting of the New Hospital Association was held last night for the purpose of receiving the names of possible candidates for the position of president and vice-president. A number of names were submitted, and a committee consisting of Miss Dobson, Mrs. G. B. Brown and Dr. T. J. McPhee was appointed to interview the nominees and report at a meeting to be held on Thursday next.

The annual election of officers of Women of the Mooseheart Legion was held last evening and resulted as follows: Past regent, J. Vanden; regent, J. Muir; junior regent, N. Jenkinson; chaplain, M. Addison; recorder, F. M. Thorne; treasurer, A. M. Bell; guide, J. Stephenson; assistant guide, M. E. Banasky; sentinel, M. Addersley; argus, A. Bailey; captain, A. Clarkson; assistant captain, A. ### COMOX ASSOCIATION LIFTING DEBTS OFF

Old Officers Re-elected at Annual Meeting—Arrangements Made for Purchase of Grounds

COURTENAY, Nov. 23.—Members of the Comox Agricultural and Industrial Association held their annual general meeting and elected to office the same ladies and gentlemen who guided their affairs in 1923, as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. William Lewis; president, Mr. William Urquhart; president-elect, Mr. John Crockett; first vice-president, Mr. Thorold D. Smith; second vice-president, Mr. William Duncan; secretary, Mr. E. Felix Thomas; treasurer, Mr. Merle Halliday; directors: Mrs. W. McPhee, Mrs. W. T. Wain, Rev. J. W. Hurford, W. J. Dunn, B. Hughes, P. L. Anderson, George Edwards, A. R. England, John McKenzie and W. G. Marshall.

The financial statement showed the association to be in good condition, nearly all the debt having been wiped out. In addition, the sum of $1,000 was set towards the purchase of the grounds on which the Fall fair has been held for many years. An arrangement has been entered into with Mrs. William Lewis, one of the pioneers of Comox Valley, whereby the remaining $500 to be paid for the grounds will be spread over a period of five years. The initial payment was made possible by the acknowledgment of public subscription. The Ladies' Auxiliary served refreshments at the close of the meeting. It is hoped that before the next annual meeting the trifling sum outstanding against the association will be completely wiped out.

WOMEN OF SIDNEY IN CHURCH WORK

SIDNEY, Nov. 23.—The annual meeting of the W. A. of St. Andrew's and Holy Trinity Churches was held Thursday in Matthews Hall. The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. T. M. Hughes. Mrs. J. Critchley, president of St. Andrew's branch presided at the meeting, reading the president's and secretary's report, which showed that a great deal of useful work had been done by the branch. Mrs. Critchley read a letter from Mr. Alan Green, of the Columbia Coast Mission, thanking the branch for the donation of clothing which had been sent through the dorcas secretary, Mrs. A. Harvey, and had been given to a very needy family.

Philip then read the treasurer's report, which showed a small balance in the bank. Mr. Gwynne, president of the Holy Trinity branch, then read her report, speaking of the need of the members concentrating on the four points of the work, prayer, study, singing and work, urging them to greater efforts in the coming year, the almsgiving being entirely voluntary. One member had dressed dolls for the Columbia Coast Mission. Their prayer partner had been Miss Grilling. Mrs. Salmon gave the secretary's report of the branch, saying that the branch was started last year with eight members, and there were now thirteen. An Indian boy had been adopted at Alert Bay. $143 had been raised during the year, of which $100 had been given to the new Cathedral fund, the Bishop of Victoria proposed that a part of the cathedral would be allotted to the W. A. in proportion to the funds raised. Mrs. Dickson, of Victoria, then addressed the meeting on the aims and objects of the W. A., which was listened to with great interest.

The election of officers then took place, and resulted as follows: president, Mrs. B. Gwynne; vice-president, Mrs. J. Critchley; secretary, Mrs. F. Philip; treasurer, Mrs. Salmon; dorcas secretary, Mrs. A. Harvey; and Mrs. Herchermer, treasurer of thank offerings. Mrs. J. A. Copthorne; prayer partner, Mrs. Nelson; secretary of living messages, Miss Landor.

The next meeting of the amalgamated branches will be held on December 19 at the home of Mrs. Gwynne, of Ardmore Grange. At the close of the meeting, tea was served by the ladies, which all enjoyed.

CONVICT'S STORY IS SENSATIONAL

Commissioner Smith, when appealed to by the jury, refused to intervene in any way, and said he had no right to do so. He was not to be moved. The inquiry could not be public unless the public were represented, but Mr. Smith was not to be moved.

Private Records Secured

The decision, while accepted, was not without its effect. The effect of making the subsequent proceedings in camera a matter of private record only. The dramatic episode which ensued when Wing was called in evidence was later related on the most reliable authority. The information thus obtained showed that Wing's story was the most sensational thus far given before the inquiry.

Wing, convicted at the Vancouver Spring assizes this year, after seven years' imprisonment for selling drugs, proved to be a most unwilling witness. He was arraigned by the city police, he said; none of the R.C.M.P. officers had given evidence against him on his trial, and Eccles was his friend. He did not want to tell. He was afraid to tell.

Leave to Cross-Examine

After a long wrangle between Mr. Harrison, on the one hand, and E. P. Davis, K.C., J. B. P. Davis, K.C., and J. A. Russell, appearing directly for the accused or for them in arrangement with the Department of Justice, Commissioner Smith gave Mr. Harrison leave to cross-examine the Chinaman.

"I don't think he's afraid," said the commissioner. "Look at that man's face," said Mr. Harrison, pointing to the man, who sat huddled in his shapless prison uniform, in the chill atmosphere of the bare, gloomy office. "Convict, you see he's afraid? He has said he is afraid, and if he says anything else now it is because of what you have said. Of course he's afraid."

Wing told his story without the aid of an interpreter, speaking English as to be understood without difficulty.

Accuses Eccles

His first statement, given without much urging, was a serious allegation against F. W. Eccles. He said he had given Eccles $300 for the purpose of spiriting away one Anderson, who was to be the principal witness against him. (Wing's) trial. Eccles had asked for $1,000, he said, but was content with $300, which Wing persuaded he had given him.

The Anderson incident is the subject of one of the charges preferred by Attorney-General Manson against Reginald Mundy, and was the subject of comment at the Vancouver assizes last March by Mr. Dugald Donaghy, Crown prosecutor.

Wing showed extreme reluctance to embark upon the story which followed, and which was elicited in its first passages by questions put by Commissioner Smith.

Wing Tells Story

In September, 1922, said Wing, he had received $2,000 from Lee Kim, of Victoria, a trafficker in drugs. The men who had sold him the stuff were in the penitentiary room listening to his evidence, declared Wing. He did not want to single them out; he was in enough trouble, he did not want to make more for anyone else. He was in for seven years. It could do no good to tell. Despite the utmost pressure from Mr. Harrison, who at last obtained leave to cross-examine, Wing could not be budged from this attitude.

Another Convict's Story

Jack Fallon, known as "Blata," serving a term for years for selling drugs, was also heard at the secret inquiry in the penitentiary. Fallon said he knew Doc Smith as Doc. Mr. Smith had told him that he was a dealer in drugs, with customers in Seattle. After Fallon's arrest last November, and before his trial last March, he had watched the apartment house where Doc Smith lived in an upstairs room. He had watched addicts come and go, two or three men and one or two women.

"I guess I made it too hot for Doc," said Fallon. "He had me put out of the corridor by the janitor." Then came a dramatic event in the inquiry. Doc Smith jumped to his feet. "Did you not live downstairs with —" naming a woman. "I did not," said Fallon. "I lived home with my wife. The rooming downstairs was a friend of mine."

The inquiry will be continued in the court house tomorrow. Two witnesses will be called one of them a woman, a former drug addict, Harry Jones and his wife, Fanny, who testified to receiving money for smuggling drugs from Empress liners, will be recalled for cross-examination by the defence.

At Okalla Jail

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23.—Crowded about a small table in a little room at Okalla Jail, Commissioner J. P. Smith, K.C., this morning held his inquiry. It was a strange and sombre atmosphere. The witnesses appeared in the drab grey uniform of the jail, on the back of which was marked the letters "V.I." Warders clothed in khaki flitted about, their eyes keeping watchful eye on the line of pale-faced, nervous looking convicts who had been called to testify.

The most startling evidence of the morning was that given by Leon Arthur Streeter, a man with a long list of convictions against him, who swore that he had purchased drugs on two occasions from J. P. (Doc) Smith, whom he knew to be employed by the police.

C. L. Harrison, acting for Attorney-General Manson, endeavored to introduce a Chinaman named Wong Quim as a witness, but exception was taken by counsel for the members of the police who are accused, and by E. P. Davis, K.C., acting for the Department of Justice, to the taking of the testimony without the presence of the public. The Chinaman was first been given. This, it was contended, was in keeping with an arrangement made at the first session of the inquiry held at Victoria, when Hon. Mr. Manson was present. The Chinaman will appear on Monday or Tuesday.

Streeter said that he knew "Doc" Smith, who had come to Okalla to see him and enlist his services. "Doc" Smith interrupted at the outset saying that he was personally unimpressed, and demanded particulars of the charge. Mr. E. P. Davis, K.C., said that he considered in the circumstances that it was his duty to act for Smith, in order that the fullest assistance could be given to the commission in obtaining the details of the allegations, and in the interests of justice.

Mr. Harrison—the witness will say that he was sold morphine and cocaine by Smith during the months of July and August of this year. The examination of the witness continued.

Mr. Harrison—Did "Doc" Smith sell you drugs?

Witness—Yes.

"On what occasions?"

"During July and August."

Promised Protection

Witness—He sold me a nounce and a half of morphine for $40, and half an ounce of cocaine for $15. The first time it was outside of the Patricia Lodge, and the next time outside of the Grand Hotel. He also promised me protection.

Mr. Harrison—What did he say?

Witness—I met him in Chinatown, and he said if I was willing to work with him I would be left alone.

Mr. Harrison—Did you have any conversation with Smith after your arrest about drugs?

Witness—No, I have never seen him since I was arrested by a sergeant of the city force.

Commissioner—"What was the protection you were to get?"

Witness—It was against arrest on drug charges. I was arrested and sentenced to three months, on August 9.

In answer to questions by Mr. J. B. Pattullo, K.C., counsel for the R.C.M.P., the witness admitted having served a number of terms in jail. He could not remember exact dates.

In reply to Mr. Davis, he said that Smith had come to Okalla to see him in May of this year.

Mr. Davis—He was seeing you on police business?

Witness—No.

Information as to Drugs

Witness—He came here to try and get information about drugs. He represented himself to be a police officer. In further answers he reiterated his statement that he had been sold morphine and cocaine by Smith. He had paid $75 for what he had secured, he said.

"Where did you get the money?" he was asked.

"From my people."

Mr. Harrison said that he had a witness who had just arrived by automobile. He wanted the commissioner to call him, and it was essential that his evidence be taken at once.

"I tender you as an official witness Wong Quim," said Mr. Harrison. "I only got this man late yesterday, and I cannot give you particulars except in a general way. He will say, I understand, that he has been paying, or paid, hush money to members of the narcotic squad of the R.C.M.P."

Must Have Particulars

Commissioner—The understanding was that particulars were to be furnished to counsel. That was the agreement and understanding when this inquiry opened. Why can you not give counsel particulars today and call him Monday?"

Mr. Harrison—Because he is in fear of the R.C.M.P.

Mr. Davis—I object to his being called today. We were to take the evidence of witnesses in prison today, and now Mr. Harrison tries to run us others without giving us any particulars.

Mr. Harrison—The witness is in fear of the R.C.M.P.

Commissioner (to Wong Quim)—Why won't you come tomorrow?

Witness—Quim—Because my boss he no let me. He say, you go to work tomorrow. We too busy. My boss he Mr. Makis.

Commissioner—Are you afraid of the police?

Wong Quim—Mr. afraid? No, me no frail anything, but my boss he say too busy. Me not know anybody in this room.

After Otway Wilkie, of the provincial police, who brought the prisoner, had explained the matter further to Mr. Harrison, it was stated that Wong Quim would be produced on Monday.

Protest Against Procedure

Mr. Pattullo protested against the procedure. "I wish to say that this is most unfair and unjust," he said. "There is nothing to prevent my learned friend from giving particulars of the charges made by the Attorney-General which the commission has been called on to investigate. Each morning, however, we find Mr. Harrison bobbing up with a new charge, and without furnishing us particulars upon which to examine."

Mr. Harrison—But I only learned of this man last night. When I start along one line other things develop.

J. A. Russell, counsel for F. W. Eccles—If this commission does not sit until Monday, I insist on being given all particulars.

Commissioner—Mr. Harrison, you should give particulars. You are not going to shift the responsibility for calling witnesses on me in the middle of a session without my knowing the particulars of the charges. Give me particulars in proper time and I will give you all the advantage that will come through my calling the witnesses. You can then cross-examine them.

Pat McCulloch was the next witness. He said that he knew "Doc" Smith and Eccles. They had spoken to him about drugs, but he had no dealings with them.

"Doc" Smith had asked him, said the witness, if he wanted to make "fast money."

Mr. Harrison said he had several other witnesses in mind, but he would not call them. The court of inquiry then adjourned to New Westminster to hold a session at the penitentiary.

ASK EMPLOYEES TO OPPOSE BILL

Sawmill Operators Will Urge Workers to Sign Petition Against Eight-Hour Day Legislation

CLAIM LAW WOULD THROTTLE INDUSTRY

Say American Mills Are Able to Reduce Production Costs Because of More Efficient Machinery

EMPLOYEES of all the mills in Victoria will soon be asked to sign a petition protesting against the proposal to introduce the eight-hour day in the saw-mills, according to plans discussed at a conference of local mill operators held in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Representatives not only of the Victoria plants were present at the meeting, but also of sawmills on the island. Strong objections were voiced to the proposed legislation. It was maintained strenuously that the inauguration of an eight-hour day would mean the eventual closing down of the mills here, which would be unable to compete with lumber concerns in the States. Practically all the American mills, it was pointed out, enjoy a tremendous advantage in the possession of more modern machinery than can be found here. This reduces their production costs. It was held, and if the eight-hour day were introduced here, would enable them to undersell the local products to such an extent that Victoria saw-mill operators would be forced out of business.

This action was in line with that taken by the saw-mill workers of Chemainus on Thursday. There the employees of the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company's plant, destroyed by fire last Sunday, decided to petition the Legislature not to adopt the proposed law. The rebuilding of a million-dollar plant there is contingent on the Legislature's decision, according to the operators.

Many KIDDIES ENJOY DOLLS' RECEPTION

Second Floor of David Spencer's, Ltd., Holds Many Attractions for Children—Party Ends Today

Hundreds of kiddies in Victoria have been made happy during the past two afternoons by a grand dolls' reception, which has been held on the second floor of David Spencer's, Ltd. The children are all guests at the reception and have been made happy by the sight of the dolls and the tables have been thoroughly enjoyed the generous dish of ice cream and bialle served for their delight by the management of the big department store.

In addition to the reception a charming little programme, including a dolls' dance by Miss C. Webster and a fairy dance by the Misses Cherry Stone and Margaret Cookson, was performed. All the little dancers were most pleasing in their presentation, and later gave a dolls' song and dance and a poppy dance. The stage arrangements in connection with the programme were most attractive, and the artists appeared on the stage emerging from a tiny door in a dolls' house. Today will be the last day of the dolls' reception, and the two previous days have had a record of over four hundred children present.

At the reception a wide variety of dolls were to be seen, beautifully and picturequely gowned, and the little guests' exclamations of "Oh's" and "Ah's" were heard as they admired the pretty toys. At the end of the programme the children will be further entertained in Toyland, where free rides on a merry-go-round will round out a red letter day for the kiddies.

LINE-UP SHOWS BALDWIN LEADS

Sir Samuel Hoare, speaking in London, said that if the government was victorious, it would, generally speaking, apply a low tariff in all but a few exceptional cases. It is pointed out as a feature of the campaign that there will be much fewer unopposed returns than usual, candidates being put up in constituencies commonly regarded as forlorn hopes, while, so intense is the campaign that almost without exception the leaders of the three great parties are faced with opposition.

Election Probabilities

Thirty-six members of the expiring Parliament are not seeking re-election. Among the probabilities of the polling is the return of a number of Conservative free traders, so that the government party itself, in that case, will be greatly divided on the question of tariffs.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—As already indicated, the British elections will turn largely on the question of how the great industrial centres, especially in the North of England, regard Premier Baldwin's tariff policy. In view of this, the Canadian press is securing independent reports from the leading centres by men who have intimate knowledge of local political and other conditions.

Our Liverpool correspondent writes as follows:

"The Liverpool seats are hard nuts for Liberal cracking. Since Chamberlain's election for many years the Liberals have had little or no effect on the city's traditional Toryism, or perhaps it would be more correct to say that they have had little or no effect on the splendid organization which keeps the Tory party ready for a fight at a moment's notice. The Liberals, however, are now entering the fight in better heart than in the last election. They feel that the re-united of their once-divided forces, equipped with a certain lukewarmness on the part of some of the Conservative candidates toward protection and the vital necessity of free trade for a port like Liverpool invests their own campaign with better prospects than they have experienced for many years past."

"Up to last November the Tories held ten of Liverpool's eleven seats, which is the position they seek to regain in the present election. They want to get back the Edgehill division, which was captured last November by a Labor candidate, J. H. Hayes, who will have a big job to keep it. He is opposed by Hon. Oliver Stanley, Lord Derby's son, a barrister and a very promising politician with an excellent platform style."

"Several of Liverpool's leading businessmen are standing as Liberal free trade candidates, men of world-wide commercial interests who may reasonably be assumed to have intimate knowledge of fiscal matters and their bearing upon the national well-being. "Hugh Rathbone, for example, one of the best candidates the Liberal party ever put forward, a member of the honored Merseyside family of Rathbone, is contesting the Waverley division of Liverpool against Sir Harold Smith, a brother of Lord Birkenhead, and is expected to do well at the polls."

"Sir John Jones, another Liberal standing, a partner of the Holt firm, who runs the Blue Funnel Line, an Oxford graduate, who has done much work and devoted considerable money for the city's educational welfare, is challenging the re-election of Sir Reginald Hall in West Derby."

In Exchange, the city's business division, Sir Leslie Scott, who seeks re-election there as a supporter of the government, must have enjoyed the situation developing in the last few days. The Liberals will Sir Max Muspratt, renowned for his connection with the alkali industry, as their candidate. He is willing to stand, but a section of the Irish party, without the vote of which no Liberal can hope to succeed in Exchange, is unwilling to support him and prefer instead J. J. O'Neill, who is associated with The Manchester Guardian. The Liberal leaders, however, refuse to support O'Neill."

CULLY WILSON WILL PLAY FOR CALGARY

WINNIPEG, Nov. 23.—Cully Wilson, well-known Winnipeg hockey player, who starred in the Pacific Coast League for several years and has played in the O.H.L. in the last two years, will play for Calgary in the Western Canada League.

Lloyd Turner, manager of the Calgary team, announced this morning that Wilson had been secured from the Hamilton team for a cash consideration, and he expects that the Winnipeg lad will bolster up his forward line considerably.

A deal pending for a one-year trade between the clubs, in which Bobby Benson was to have been traded for Wilson, fell through last night when Benson turned in such a sterling game against Edmonton and Turner bought Wilson outright.

Home-and-Home Fixtures Will Be Completed Today

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Tomorrow's games in the first division of the English Football Association complete the home-and-home fixtures of last Saturday. Cardiff City, league leaders, meet Manchester City, whom they drew with last week.

Huddersfield, who succumbed to Bolton Wanderers, meet the Lancashire men again. Sunderland defeated Blackburn Rovers in their previous contest, but tomorrow they play away from home, which would suggest that there will be no repetition of their victory. Aston Villa visits Liverpool, while Sheffield United meets Notts Forest.

In the Scottish League, the Rangers play Airdrieonians and Celtic will play St. Mirren.

Motherwell meet Queens Park, while Partick Thistle play Hamilton Academicals.

Jury Must Decide Golf Inquiry Case

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A matter of golf etiquette goes to a jury of duffers in the State Supreme Court today.

John Harris, leaving the green on a 133-yard hole at Rumson, N.J., was hit by the tee shot of Henry Coe, Jr. Harris, injured, sued for $15,000.

The point the jury is to decide is whether Coe made his shot before Harris was out of range of any ordinary shot.

Coe used a jigger, the ball carrying over the green to Harris' head. William Green, professional, testified Coe should have used a mallet or a mallet niblick. Howard Whitney, rules committee member of the United States Golf Association, testified that Coe seemed within his rights in making the shot, as Harris walked off the green.

but one headline, he considered it a menace to traffic, and it should be suppressed. Next year he would like to see a special traffic officer appointed who would have complete control of traffic regulation in the city. He looked for a big increase in traffic due to the promise of increased tourist influx.

New Traffic Notices

Commissioner Stensland announced that owing to recent accidents occurring at the corner of Hillside Avenue and Quadra Street, two notices were being placed on Quadra Street, one on each side of Hillside, about forty feet from the intersection. The notices, or signboards, contained a warning of danger.

Recommendations to the incoming 1924 City Council dealing with traffic were passed. One was that boulevard existing on the west side of Menzies Street, from Quebec to Belleville Street, and on the south side of Belleville Street, from Menzies to Oswego Street, be eliminated. Another was that the Public Works Committee make a survey of the corner of Courtney and Vancouver Streets with the object of rounding off the sharp corner existing there.

Dealers In Forged Tickets Sentenced

CALGARY, Nov. 23.—For the forgery of railway passenger tickets on the C.P.R., Frank G. Law was sentenced to a year's imprisonment and Thorold Lorimer to a nine months' term, by Magistrate Davidson in police court today. They pleaded guilty to five charges, and J. A. Nesbitt, convicted of selling one of these fake tickets, was fined $10 and costs; while the same penalty was imposed on David Kowatch for purchasing the ticket.

Prince of Wales to Make Visit to Farm An Annual Event

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—The Prince of Wales intends to make his visit to his ranch in Alberta an annual event, unless empire affairs interfere, William Carlyle, superintendent of the R.P. Ranch, told the members of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculture here last night, at their banquet.

"The Prince is a real farmer—make no mistake about that," said Mr. Carlyle.

Dr. James Endicott, of the Methodist Church.

GOLF DIRECTORS RULE ON CLUBS

STEEL-SHAFTED WEAPONS ARE TO BE ALLOWED

Fix Handicap Limits for Coming Tournament—Special Events Are Eliminated

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23.—An important step was taken by the directors of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association in deciding to permit the use of steel shafted clubs. The United States Golf Association has not yet adopted any definite stand on the matter.

The P.N.G.A. will bar deeply ribbed or punched clubs in accordance with the recent ruling of the U.S.G.A., whose rules will, as heretofore, govern play in the tournament.

At next Summer's meeting, the contestants for the women's championship, at present held by Mrs. S. C. Sweeney, of this city, will use the men's tees for all play. The final in this event will be extended to thirty-six holes.

Handicap Limits

The handicap limit for the participation of amateurs in the open championship is fixed at 2; for the amateur championship the limit is 3; for the women's title, 24.

In order to facilitate the efficient handling of the tournament, in view of the record number of entries expected, it was determined to eliminate a number of special events that have been features of past meetings, such as the mixed bogey contest.

Definite action was not taken with regard to the venue of the 25th championship meeting. A deputation from the association will visit the Tacoma Golf and Country Club at an early date to learn if that club will be in a position to handle the event.

Colwood's Chance

Should Tacoma, which has not had the meeting since 1915, feel unable to undertake the assignment, it will be awarded the Colwood Golf and Country Club, of Victoria, which staged the 1922 competition. The application of Salt Lake City was favorably considered, but in view of the distances the majority of the entrants would have to travel, the application was rejected.

Soccer Notes

By A. B. BROWN

English League Schedule

Return engagements will comprise the bill-of-fare in the English Football League programme this afternoon. The games are as follows: Blackburn Rovers vs. Sunderland. Cardiff City vs. Manchester City. Chelsea vs. Middlesbrough. Huddersfield vs. Bolton Wanderers. Liverpool vs. Aston Villa. Newcastle vs. Preston N.E. Notts County vs. Birmingham. Sheffield United vs. Notts Forest. Tottenham Hotspur vs. Arsenal. Wolves vs. Birmingham. Everton vs. West Ham United vs. Burnley.

Old Scores to Pay Off

A number of visiting teams were badly beaten last Saturday, and today they will have an opportunity to redeem themselves in presence of their own supporters.

Blackburn Rovers, for instance, were knocked out by 5-1 at Sunderland, and although they may at least win the return match, the tie is by no means certain, because Huddersfield is playing well meantime, both at home and away.

Then there is the case of West Ham United, who lost by 5-1 at Burnley. The "Hammers" have shown rare defensive qualities since they joined the First Division, and there must have been a screw loose somewhere when five goals were chalked up against them.

It is therefore probable, will be on the warpath to make up for their 3-1 defeat at Bolton. The Yorkshiremen were perhaps the most serious challengers to Cardiff for top position, but the reverse at Burnden Park has set their friends a-thinking—and no wonder.

In London Town

All the London and District First Division teams will be in the metropolis today. Perhaps first in importance is the meeting between The Arsenal and Tottenham Hotspur at White Hart Lane. Last Saturday's game was a draw of one goal each, and the event today is just as likely as not to again end all squares. A year ago The Arsenal won 2-1 at home, but the Spurs were victors by 2-0 a week later.

Chelsea are at Stamford Bridge to Middlesbrough. The "Pensioners" are really in a bad plight, and as goal-getters they have the lowest total of any club in the league, including the four sections.

Trials at Liverpool

A real soccer classic should be witnessed at Anfield when Liverpool and Aston Villa line up in their return game. Both are capable of serving up a football of a high standard. A week ago at Villa Park the result was a no-scoring draw.

Everton are due at the Hawthorns to meet West Bromwich Albion, who lost by 2-0 last Saturday. The Albion has gone back considerably of late, due to a weak defence, but the old "Throstles" will come again, just as they have done when up against a slump in former years.

Notts Forest lost 2-1 at home to Sheffield United, so that the Foresters can hardly anticipate even one point at Bramall Lane.

Last season, it may be recalled, the teams battled four times in the first round of the Cup ties before the United won by 1-0, the three previous games ending 0-0, 0-0 and 1-0, with extra time in the second and third games.

Second Division Games

The Second Division games are: Barnsley vs. Leeds United. Blackpool vs. Southampton. Bury vs. Leicester City.

Nelson vs. Bristol City. Oldham Athletic vs. Clapton Orient. Port Vale vs. Bradford City. South Shields vs. Stockport County.

Leaders at Barnsley

Barnsley will have the honor of entertaining the Second Division leaders, Leeds United. The United won by 3-1 at home, and perhaps they may win again, or probably share the points.

Stoke could only draw with Crystal Palace in the Potteries, so that the runners-up have a big job on hand in the return game today.

Coventry City is one of the most improved teams in this division. For several years the club could not get going, but this season the team has done good work and is well placed on the table. Today the side is due at Old Trafford to meet Manchester United.

Bury is at home to Leicester City, who won last Saturday by 3-0. After a good start the "shakers" have failed to maintain a good standard of play.

Scottish League Matches

The following are the First Division games in the Scottish League: Clyde vs. Aberdeen. Rangers vs. Airdrieonians. Ayr United vs. Queen's Park. St. Mirren vs. Celtic. Clydebank vs. Partick Thistle. Hamilton Academicals vs. Dundee. Falkirk vs. Motherwell. Raith Rovers vs. Hearts. Hibernians vs. Morton. Third Lanark vs. Kilmarnock.

Match of the Day

The feature event in Auld Scotland today is the meeting of Rangers and Airdrieonians, leaders and runners-up in the league. Good as the Airdrie team is, one would not go the length of saying that they will break the Light Blues' unbeaten record. Still, there is always the possibility of the unexpected happening. It should be a ding-dong, hard fight, with the margin narrow, unless the Rangers come away on one of the heavy-scoring bouts.

Another good game in prospect is that between Raith Rovers and the Hearts at Kirkcaldy. The Rovers are going well meantime, and are third on the table.

Hamilton Academicals burst into the limelight last week by reason of their sensational win against Partick Thistle. Today the Academicals are at home, and have a real treat in store for their friends when the players line up against Dundee.

LINKS WILL BE CLOSED

On account of the match with Victoria Golf Club the links of the Macduff Point Golf Club will be closed to visitors tomorrow.

Pericles Wins Jump

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—Pericles, ridden by Major V. Rifton, Winnipeg, won the officers' jumping contest at the Winter Fair Horse Show last night from a field of 54 entries. On the test to decide the winner Pericles was raised an extra six inches and Pericles was the only horse to come through clean.

River Deser, Que.—"I used to have a severe pain in my side. I would be unable to walk fast and could not stand for any length of time to do my ironing or washing, but I would have to lie down to get relief from the pain. I had this for about two years, then a friend told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had had good results. I certainly got good results from it, too, as the last time I had a sore side was last May and I have not had it since. I am also glad of having good nursing for my baby, and I think it is your medicine that helped me in this way."—Mrs. L. V. BUDGE, River Deser, Quebec.

ST. ELMO IS BILL AT PANTAGES THEATRE

Play in Splendid Adaptation From the Famous Novel—Last Performance of Company Next Week

"St. Elmo," an adaptation from the famous novel of that name, was the bill at the Pantages Theatre last night. The presentation is made in four acts, opening in the blacksmith shop of Aaron Hunt on Lookout Mountain, Tennessee. The three following acts are set in the Murray home in the South.

Announcement was made at the conclusion of the play that next week's performance will be the last given by the Macy & Baird Comedy Company in Victoria. It will be a bill containing an abundance of comedy. The vehicle gave members of the Macy & Baird cast ample opportunity for displaying their talent and proved one of the most effective presentations of their repertoire. The theme is an interesting one, packed with thrills and tense dramatic situations, but there was also a touch of clever comedy which was imparted by the company itself, and this proved one of the most enjoyable features. St. Elmo, the book, is in many ways a very different thing to St. Elmo, the play, but in the latter there was not only the strong romantic appeal of the novel, but also the subtle humor of the gifted playwright.

ROYAL "How do they do it?" THEATRE This expression oftentimes bursts forth from the lips of movie patrons as they sit in the theatre and see somebody climb the outer ledge of a skyscraper or dive off a cliff several hundred feet high. There are tricks in all trades and the movies are not excluded. But in the case of "Circus Days," the circus story starring little Jackie Coogan, which will be shown at the Royal for the last time today, there are no half-raising stunts, no pulled off. And Jackie does them. Everybody has read "Toby Tyler," from which "Circus Days" was adapted. Everybody remembers how little Toby enters the circus ring dressed up in girl's clothes and rides bareback at a terrific pace for the first time, in order to save the job of the little girl that has injured her leg. When someone started to rig up piano wires to balance Jackie on the great white steed he was to ride, the starlet put his foot down. "I can ride him without wires," he cried. Jackie has been taking riding lessons for over a year and is one of the best child riders in the film world—and that's going some.

CAPITOL Reginald Barker's genius for staging spectacular and thrilling scenes has found a new outlet in his recently completed massive production of Metro's "The Eternal Struggle," which is showing for the last time today at the Capitol Theatre. "The Eternal Struggle" is a picture-ization of G. B. Lancaster's widely-read novel, "The Law-Bringers." Many of the scenes were filmed in the frozen Canadian northland. Mr. Barker transported his entire cast to Canada, where for months they endured severe hardships while scenes of great beauty were filmed. The cast includes Earle Williams, Renee Adoree, Barbara La Marr, Pat O'Malley, Wallace Beery, Josef Swickard, Pat Harrison, George Kuwa, Ed J. Brady, Robert Anderson and Anders Randolf.

PLAYHOUSE Ethel Clayton's ravishing beauty and histrionic ability radiate from the silver sheet as never before in her second starring vehicle for Film Booking Office, "Can a Woman Love Twice?" which will be on view for the last time today and tonight at the Playhouse Theatre. No picture of this brilliant star's highly successful career has elicited as much praise from enthusiastic admirers as has her latest effort, which is a soul-stirring drama with remarkably thrilling and entertaining dramatic qualities. The story deals with a beautiful young widow who practices a great deception to circumvent her selfish and child, who goes through a veritable whirlwind of dramatic circumstances, from which she is ultimately caught by second love, Malcolm McGregor, a fine young leading man. The story was written by Wyndham Gittens and produced under the direction of James W. Horne.

DOMINION Pola Negri, famous motion picture star, has a role of intense power in her latest Paramount star vehicle, "The Spanish Dancer," which is showing for the last time today at the Dominion Theatre. The scenes of the production are laid in old Spain and as a whole the picture is one of the best productions of the current season. Antonio Moreno is featured as leading man and has an unusually strong supporting cast.

COLUMBIA Tom Mix, the virtuoso of the Fox constellation of stars, departs tonight from the Columbia Theatre, where he has scored the biggest success of his many years in a picture of Zane Grey's best seller, "The Lone Star Ranger." The favorite screen character has attracted record houses at

LOTS OF ACTION IN NEW OFFERING AT THE ROYAL

It has been said that the inveterate "movie fan" finds the theatre of the spoken word slow because there is not movement enough. His mind has been trained to speed and automatically demands it. This fact should not keep anyone away from "The Cat and the Canary," which Kibbourn Gordon, Inc., is to present at the Royal Victoria Wednesday and Thursday nights, Nov. 28-29.

Under the auspices of the Victoria Section of the Alpine Club of Canada, Sir James Outram, the famous English explorer and mountaineer, will lecture on Saturday evening in the Empress ballroom. His subject is to be "The Canadian Rockies," a theme on which he is eminently fitted to speak, having, perhaps, climbed more British Columbia mountains of over 10,000 feet than any other English mountaineer.

ORCHESTRAL SOCIETY

Special Reservation Made for School Children at Concert to Be Held at the High School

In connection with the forthcoming concert of the Victoria Orchestral Society, to be held in the High School auditorium on November 30, a special feature will be the reservation of 400 seats for pupils of the public and high schools of the city. Pupils should make immediate application for these special tickets to their respective teachers, who in turn should forward their requests to Mr. J. H. Dilworth, who has the distribution of these tickets in his care.

Another interesting feature is the offering of a scholarship by Mr. Drury Pryce, the conductor of the orchestra. This scholarship entitles the holder to twelve months' free tuition on the violin, and will be awarded to the school pupil who shall write the best essay on the concert. Candidates for this scholarship must be between the ages of 8 and 15. Essays will be judged more from the standpoint of the musical intelligence shown than from the standpoint of literary merits.

Lananhan is also wanted by Vancouver police on a charge of holding up the Majestic Theatre here and stealing more than $400. He is wanted in Montreal under the name of Duperre Pireault on a charge of assault and robbery, and is wanted by the Calgary police on three charges of assault and robbery under the name of John E. ### DR. HALL FEARS WAVE OF INSANITY AFTER DR. PRICE

How many cases of insanity have been dealt with by the Victoria police since the visit to this city of Dr. Price, faith healer, and how many such cases have been traceable to Dr. Price's doctrines? The question was asked at last night's meeting of the Victoria Police Commission by Commissioner Ernest Hall. Chief Fry replied that the police department had no records of such a matter, as cases of insanity were dealt with by the medical profession, and commitments to asylums were made on doctors' certificates.

Later Mennonite Settlers Doing Well

WINNIPEG, Nov. 23.—Twenty-five hundred Mennonite men, women and children from Southern Russia have been placed on Western Canadian land during the past year by the Mennonite Colonization Association, according to Rev. David Towes, president of the organization. Most of them were placed in the Rosherman district in Northern Saskatchewan. Many of the immigrants formerly were large land owners in Russia, but lost their all in the Bolshevik revolution. No fewer are these people to adopt Canada as their homeland, said Mr. Towes, that they have established twenty-five night schools in their district for the sole purpose of learning the English language and adopting Canadian customs and ways.
